Preferred Citation

World War II Memorial collection, Rare Books and Manuscripts, Indiana State Library

Historical Note

The World War II Memorial is located in the American Legion Mall in downtown Indianapolis, directly north of the Korean Memorial which was dedicated in May 1996. R. W. Sweeney, Executive Director of the Indiana War Memorials Commission, received ideas and recommendations from people for the planned memorial. The design accepted was by Patrick Brunner Architect, Inc.

Scope and Contents

---

In the collection are bidding documents and statistical information about the construction of the World War II Memorial, as well as information about the soldiers and units from Indiana who fought in that war from 1941-1945. There is information about medal of honor winners, about men buried in Europe, and ideas which people sent for inclusion in the Memorial.
